

Lost girl found at campground

57 minutes ago

ALBANY – New Hampshire State Police, along with New Hampshire Fish and Game, found a missing 6-year-old girl at Pine Knoll Campground in Albany.

State Police said Cassandra Sousa of Laconia was last seen in the playground at the campground. After a search, she was located just before midnight last night. She was not injured.

XCV

All trademarks and copyrights on this page are owned by their respective owners. © 1997-2008.